THE MARCIA BROWNE MEMORIAL FUND

Established in 2005 by the family and friends of Marcia Browne, the Marcia Browne Memorial Fund provides tuition assistance to needy families of St. Joseph School and is a fitting tribute to Marcia, whose untimely death has left a tremendous void in the lives of those who knew her.

Marcia was the proud parent of two St. Joseph School students and an active member of both the school and the parish. She served as an officer of the Parent Teacher Association, played an integral role in many of the school's fundraising initiatives and was an advocate for the school in the community. Marcia believed strongly in Catholic education and the benefits of the safe, nurturing learning environment that St. Joseph School provides.

Marcia often expressed how fortunate she and her family were to be members of the St. Joseph School community. Her deep compassion for others was exemplified in the way she lived her life. She positively affected the lives of many. Marcia would be pleased to know that this memorial fund assists others to experience all that St. Joseph School offers.

THE DANIELLE GRENHAM MEMORIAL FUND

This fund was established in 2003 by Diane and James Grenham, in loving memory of their daughter, Danielle, who graduated from St. Joseph School in 1989. The Danielle Grenham Memorial Fund provides financial aid to families who need tuition assistance.

THE JOHN J. MCCARTHY, SR. MEMORIAL FUND

The John J. McCarthy, Sr. Memorial Fund was established by the family and friends of John J. McCarthy, Sr. A life-long Wakefield resident, a husband, father, grandfather, and a graduate of St. Joseph School, John was an active member of St. Joseph Parish and a long-time supporter of the parish school he loved so much. After graduating from St. Joseph School, John went on to graduate from Wakefield High School, served in the US Navy during World War II, and graduated from Boston University before beginning his 40-year public service career for the Town of Wakefield.

John J. McCarthy, Sr. accomplished much in his lifetime, both personally and professionally, yet was most proud of the fact that his six grandchildren attended St. Joseph School. The John J. McCarthy, Sr. Memorial Fund provides financial aid to families who need tuition assistance.

THE MARY J. CAMMARATA-TARMEY MEMORIAL FUND

Cammarata-Tarmey, by her parents, Rocco and Louise Cammarata, this fund stands as a living legacy to the warm, compassionate and giving spirit that Mary embodied throughout her life. As an endowment, the Mary J. Cammarata-Tarmey Memorial Fund will ensure that the memory of Mary will live on by providing tuition assistance to needy families.

"Believe and live the Goodness of God."
